"THE MOST POPULAR" MUSIC BOOKS

Published by Hinds, Hayden & Eldredge, New York City

A happy inspiration seems to have guided the work of the compilers of the "Most Popular" music books. In no series of books does the choice from the great mass of material available betray such excellence of judgment and such nicety of distinction between what should be and what should not be included.

A collection of 35 standard piano pieces arranged and in some instances simplified by the famous American composer and musician George Rosey, intended especially for the use of second and third year piano students, and for the use of amateurs who wish to have good piano music which they can play without any great degree of technical ability. The contents includes a wide variety of compositions and is of such a nature as to appeal to every lover of piano music. Price, 75 cents.

A collection of 19 piano classics arranged for four hands by the celebrated American composer and musician George Rosey. These arrangements while being in no sense of the word difficult are extremely effective and original, being different in the effect they produce upon the listener from any other published before. A wide variety has been carried out in the contents so that this folio will appeal to both lovers of semi-popular and strictly classical music. Price 75 cents.

This high-class collection of standard pieces has been especially arranged and adapted for the use of first and second grade students.

The teacher will find this book of invaluable aid in the instruction of young students, as extreme care has been used in the selection and arrangement of each composition and a glance at the contents will prove that there is not a number in the book that will not help in cultivating the appreciation of good music. Price 75 cents.

This collection of 35 world famous compositions, arranged and edited by E. R. Kroeger as easy four-hand pieces for general practice purposes and use at recitals of young pupils, admirably fulfils its mission.

The compositions are all within the first and second grades of difficulty and yet the standard of the contents list is such that every number might easily grace the programme of the world's greatest concert pianist. Price 75 cents.

Here is a book that set about to overcome a prejudice and finds itself most strongly supported by the very class that proverbially looks askance at low-priced collections of music.

"The Most Popular Modern Piano Pieces" has found its way into the libraries of the musically educated. More than that, in satisfying the critic taste, our Modern Piano Pieces have not sacrificed in any instance the heart qualities that make the amateur love them not for any technical reason, but just because he must. Price 75 cents.

A glance at the contents list below is all that is necessary to show why this book is "Most Popular." A collection containing the greatest masterpieces of the modern world's foremost composers will assuredly be enjoyed by teachers and students.

Many of the selections have been unobtainable heretofore as four-hand numbers. The editing and arranging is the work of E. R. Kroeger, whose fame as a concert pianist and successful instructor is nation wide. Price 75 cents.

Teachers will find in this book an instructor that not only will replace the old methods by presenting the elements of music in a manner to meet the requirements of modern conditions and modern teaching methods, but in doing so will interest even the most indifferent student.

The little compositions used as exercises throughout the book is a new departure that will act as an incentive to the student by making him feel that he is progressing. Price 75 cents.

This collection will fill a niche quite of its own in musical literature as being the only folio of standard dance music which can lay claim to being complete. An even casual glance at the contents cannot fail to convince the lover of piano music in the lighter vein, that it is the ideal collection of piano dance music, including every known style of dance, in each case represented by a composition from the pen of some past master of dance music composition. Price 75 cents.

A WORD FROM THE PUBLISHERS

"I care not who makes the laws of a nation if I may write its songs."

The thought behind these words is the justification for this volume. For the nation's songs express the glories, the ideals and the feelings of a whole people and it is but natural that patriotism, the manifestation of love of country, its laws and its traditions, should be commemorated in song. The patriotic song not only gives expression to the dormant sentiments of citizens, but crystallizes those sentiments and creates the desire to emulate those who have served with honor in the past.

We are a patriotic people and rich in the songs that describe our glorious sacrifices and achievements. It has been the aim of the publishers to include in this volume all the patriotic songs of America that are recognized and that breathe in their text and melody the sentiments of devotion and loyalty to which our people have ever been faithful.

To add to the completeness of this volume the national song of practically every nation in the civilized world has been included.

long may it wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

3 And where is that band who so vauntingly swore,
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave:

CHORUS.

And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

4 Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and wild war's desolation,
Blest with victory and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"

CHORUS.

And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

 It took a horn of powder;
 It made a noise like father's gun,
 Only a nation louder.

 Its head all made of leather,

 Nor turned about till I got home,
 Locked up in mother's chamber.

6 We drank to him no empty toast,
 Nor was our boasting vain,
 For on the far Philippine coast
 He "singed the beard of Spain."

7 And up from all our hills and vales,
 From city, town and shore,
 A mighty shout the welkin hails—
 "Well done, brave Commodore!"

8 An Admiral's flag you now will fly,
 You've won it like a man
 Where heroes love to do or die,
 Right in the battle's van.

9 And on our history's matchless scroll,
 Writ large along its lines,
 With those who've played a deathless role,
 The name of Dewey shines.

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET.

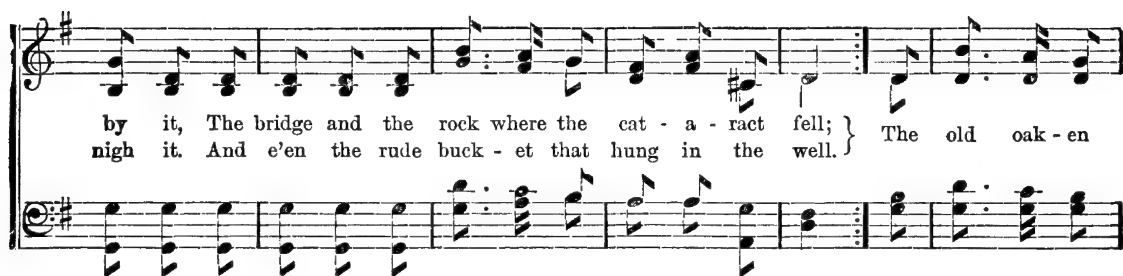

Samuel Woodworth.

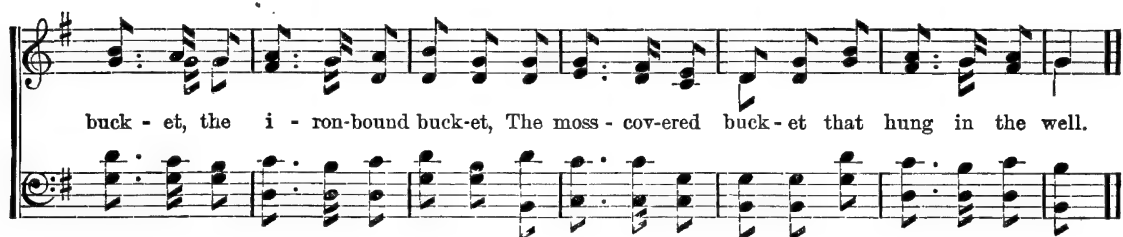

1. { How dear to this heart are the scenes of my child-hood, When fond rec-ollec-tion pre-sents them to view! } { The wide-spread-ing pond, and the mill that stood buck-et, the i-ron-bound buck-et, The moss-cov-ered buck-et that hung in the well.

2 The moss-covered bucket I hailed as a treasure,
For often at noon, when returned from the field,
I found it the source of an exquisite pleasure,
The purest and sweetest that nature can yield.
How ardent I seized it, with hands that were glowing.
And quick to the white-pebbled bottom it fell,
Then soon, with the emblem of truth overflowing.
And dripping with coolness, it rose from the well.
The old oaken bucket, the iron-bound bucket,
The moss-covered bucket arose from the well.

3 How sweet from the green, mossy brim to receive it,
As, poised on the curb, it inclined to my lips!
Not a full-blushing goblet could tempt me to leave it,
Tho' filled with the nectar that Jupiter sips.
And now, far removed from the loved habitation,
The tear of regret will intrusively swell,
As fancy reverts to my father's plantation.
And sighs for the bucket that hung in the well.
The old oaken bucket, the iron-bound bucket,
The moss-covered bucket which hangs in the well.

LOVE'S OLD SWEET SONG.

Words by G. F. Brigham.

Music by J. L. Molloy.

1. Once in the dear, dead days be-yond re-call, When on the world the mists be-gan to fall,
2. E-ven to-day we hear love's song of yore, Deep in our hearts it dwells for ev-er more;

The first system of the song features a vocal melody in G major (one flat) and 4/4 time. The piano accompaniment consists of a simple harmonic pattern in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

Out of the dreams that rose in hap-py throng, Low to our hearts love sang an old sweet song;
Foot-steps may fal-ter, wea-ry grow the way, Still we can hear it at the close of day.

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The piano part includes some chords and rests, providing a steady accompaniment for the vocal line.

And in the dusk, where fell the twilight gleam, Soft-ly it wove it-self in-to our dream.
So to the end, when life's dim shadows fall, Love will be found the sweetest song of all.

The third system concludes the main body of the song. The piano part features a rit. (ritardando) marking towards the end, with a final chord in the right hand.

CHORUS.
Just a song at twi-light, when the lights are low,
the lights are low,

The chorus is written in 3/4 time. The vocal melody is simple and repetitive, while the piano accompaniment provides a harmonic foundation with chords and a steady bass line.

LOVE'S OLD SWEET SONG.

And the flick - 'ring shad - ows soft - ly come and go,
soft - ly go,

Tho' the heart be wea - ry, sad the day and long, Still to us at the day is long,

twi - light, comes love's old song, Comes love's old sweet..... song.....

 And manly hearts to guard the fair.

"AMERICA"

Samuel Francis Smith

My country, 'tis of thee,
 Sweet land of liberty,
 Of thee I sing;
 Land where my fathers died;
 Land of the pilgrim's pride;
 From ev'ry mountain side
 Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
 Land of the noble free,
 Thy name I love;
 I love thy rocks and rills,
 Thy woods and templed hills;
 My heart with rapture thrills,
 Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
 And ring from all the trees
 Sweet freedom's song;
 Let mortal tongues awake,
 Let all that breathe partake;
 Let rocks their silence break,
 The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God! to Thee,
 Author of liberty,
 To Thee we sing;
 Long may our land be bright
 With freedom's holy light;
 Protect us by Thy might,
 Great God, our King.

May kind heaven sweetly smile;
God bless old Scotland evermore,
And Ireland's Emerald Isle.
Then swell the song, both loud and long,
Till rocks and forest quiver,
God save our Queen, and heaven bless
The Maple Leaf forever!—CHO.

THE WEARING OF THE GREEN.

(IRISH NATIONAL SONG)

Words by Dion Boucicault.

Moderato.

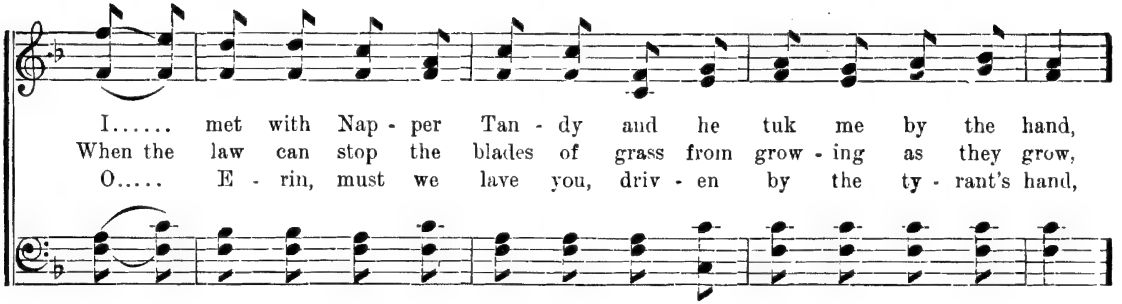

1. O Pad - dy, dear, and did you hear the news that's go - ing round,
2. Then since the col - or we must wear is Eng - land's cru - el red,
3. But if at last our col - or should be torn from Ire - land's heart,

The Sham - rock is for - bid by law to grow on I - rish ground;
Sure Ire - land's sons will ne'er for - get the blood that they have shed.
Her sons with shame and sor - row from the dear old soil will part.

Saint... Pat - rick's day no more we'll keep, His col - or can't be seen
You may take the sham - rock from your hat, and cast it on the sod,
I've heard whis - per of a coun - try that lies far be - yant the say,

For there's a blood - y law a - gin' the wear - in' o' the green.
But 'twill take root and flour - ish still, tho' un - der - foot 'tis trod.
Where rich and poor stand e - qual in the light of free - dom's day.

THE WEARING OF THE GREEN.

I..... met with Nap - per Tan - dy and he tuk me by the hand,
 When the law can stop the blades of grass from grow - ing as they grow,
 O..... E - rin, must we lave you, driv - en by the ty - rant's hand,

And he said, "How's poor ould Ire - - land, and how.... does she stand?"
 And.... when the leaves in sum - mer - time their ver - dure dare not show,
 Must we ask a moth - er's wel - come from a strange, but hap - py land;

She's the most dis - tress - ful coun - try that ev - er you have seen;
 Then I will change the col - or I wear in my cau - been,
 Where the cru - el cross of Eng - land's thral - dom nev - er shall be seen,

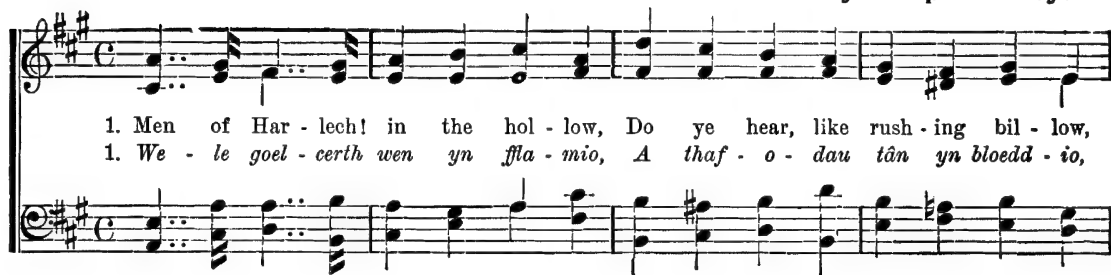

They're hang - ing men and wom - en there for wear - ing of the green.
 But, till that day, I'll stick for aye to wear - ing of the green.
 And where, in peace, we'll live and die a - wear - ing of the green.

 Men of Harlech! young or hoary,
 Would you win a name in story?
 Strike for home, for life, for glory!

 The vile insatiate despots dare,
 Their thirst for gold and power unbounded,
 To mete and vend the light and air!
 To mete and vend the light and air!
 Like beasts of burden would they load us,
 Like gods would bid their slaves adore;
 But man is man, and who is more?
 Then shall they longer lash and goad us?
 To arms, to arms, ye brave!
 Th'avenging sword unsheath!
 March on, march on, all hearts resolved
 On liberty or death!
- 3 O Liberty! can man resign thee?
 Once having felt thy generous flame,
 Can dungeon bolts and bars confine thee
 Or whips thy noble spirit tame?
 Or whips thy noble spirit tame?
 Too long the world has wept, bewailing
 The blood-stained sword our conqu'rors wield;
 But freedom is our sword and shield,
 And all their arts are unavailing!

 Vont enfin recevoir leur prix!
 Tout est soldat pour vous combattre.
 S'ils tombent, nos jeunes héros,

 Quand nos aînés n'y seront plus;
 Nous y trouverons leur poussière
 Et la trace de leurs vertus,
 Et la trace de leurs vertus,
 Bien moins jaloux de leur survivre
 Que de partager leur cercueil,
 Nous aurons le sublime orgueil
 De les venger ou de les suivre!
 Aux armes, citoyens!
 Formez vos bataillons!
 Marchons, marchons! qu'un sang impur

3. For us were our dwellings Italian erected!
 Return to your own by the Danube protected!
 You've stolen our bread, our fields you have ravag'd,
 Our sons now shall fight 'neath their own country's flag!
 Our border the Alps and the two seas, regaining,
 With fire and with sword them we'll e'er be maintaining,
 The olden frontiers shall be swept from remembrance!
 And one flag our country united shall greet!
 Ye aliens, abandon our home-land Italian!
 The hour is at hand, shake its dust from your feet.

3. Le case d'Italia son fatte per noi,
 E la sul Danubio la casa de tuoi,
 Tu i campi ci guasti, tu il pane e' involi
 I nostri figliuoli per noi li vogliamo.
 Son l'Alpi e i due mari d'Italia i confini,
 Col carro di fuoco rompiam gli Appennini
 Distrutto ogni corno di vecchia frontiera,
 La nostra bandiera per tutto innalziam.
 Va fuori d'Italia, va fuorich'è l'ora,
 Va fuori d'Italia, va fuori o stranier.

4. A truce then to speeches, let arms speak the louder.
 And face to the foe, let us argue with powder!
 The Austrian will flinch, he will turn from us fleeing,
 The thought of our country aglow in our hearts!
 We dream not of spoils nor of barbarous plunder;
 Dissention and jealousy ne'er shall us sunder,
 Italians shall all form one nation together,
 Her towns fam'd and many, in union shall meet!
 Ye aliens, abandon our home-land Italian!
 The hour is at hand, shake its dust from your feet!

4. Sien mute le lingue, sien pronte le braccia;
 Soltanto al nemico vogliamo la faccia,
 E tosto oltre i momenti, n'andrà lo straniero
 Se tutto un pensiero l'Italia sarà.
 Non basta il trionfo di barbare spoglie,
 Si chiudan ai ladri d'Italia le soglie
 Le genti d'Italia son tutte una sola,
 Son tutte una sola le cento città.
 Va fuori d'Italia, va fuori ch'è l'ora,
 Va fuori d'Italia, va fuori o stranier.

In freedom's possession,
To him we may sing.
||: 'Mongst kings thou art peerless,
Of heroes most fearless,
Long live our brave King!:||

2 O följom vår Kung,
I krigiska tider,
Till modiga strider,
Båd gammal och ung!
||: Han vet föra svärdet
Men känner dock värdet
Af friden, vår Kung.:||

3 Välsignom vår Kung!
Han ryckt oss ur nöden,
Till sällare öden
Båd gammal och ung.
||: Han bär för vår smärta
Ett faderligt hjerta,
Välsignom vår Kung.:||

4 O lefve vår Kung,
Till frihetens hägnad,
Till innerlig fägnad
För gammal och ung!
||: Bland Kungar den Första,
Bland Hjeltar den Största,
O lefve vår Kung!:||

HUNGARIAN NATIONAL HYMN.

Music by Franz Erkel.

Arranged by George Rosey.

Andante.

mf

1. Bless our land with gladness, Let a-bun-dance here be found, Lend Thine aid
2. Hail the land which our sires No-bly held for freedom's sake; In the storm in dark-ness, When her foes are gath-ring round; Hun-ga-ry, in days of yore, gath-ring o'er Their ex-am-ple we must take; Peace shall in our homes re-main,

Thou hadst sor-row deep and sore, Which thy sons full brave-ly bore, Thy Lib-er-ty full pow'r at-tain, Hun-ga-ry her strength re-gain When free-dom to re-store; Which thy sons full brave-ly bore, Thy freedom to re-store.

free-dom comes to reign; Hun-ga-ry her strength re-gain When freedom comes to reign.

NATIONAL HYMN. ARGENTINA.

3. Hark to the walls and the mountains that crumble,
 Crashing down in a ruin complete,
 While shout of rage and the thunder of battle
 Through the land angry echoes repeat.
 For the envy of tyrants is doubled
 With a hatred as deep as the grave,
 They are raising their blood-dripping banner
 And with arms would the freeman enslave!
 CHO.—Freedom's laurel crown defending, etc.

4. Lo, Argentinos, they dare to affront us!
 Us the scorn of the spoiler to show!
 Our fields they trample, too soon celebrating,
 Fancied victories they never will know!
 Yet the valiant whose oath is abiding,
 Who for freedom will fight to the last,
 Will oppose to these ravening tigers
 Such a wall as may never be passed!
 CHO.—Freedom's laurel crown defending, etc.

5. Now to your arms, Argentinos, be fearless!
 Let the joy of the fight speed your steel!
 When o'er the plains of the Southland are sounding
 Battle trumpets their brazen appeal!
 Buenos Aires to lead in the combat
 All the cities united that stand,
 She shall crush with her strength and her valiance
 Slay the lion of Spain in our land!
 CHO.—Freedom's laurel crown defending, etc.

6. Lo, the Argentine banner that's waving,
 Vict'ry glories its folds with her light,
 The tyrant trembles and stricken with panic
 Leaves the struggle in cowardly flight!
 And his standards, the arms he abandons,
 As the trophies of freedom are owned,
 And the nation, in glory uplifted
 Now at length is in majesty throned.
 CHO.—Freedom's laurel crown defending, etc.

7. And from the North to the South Pole is carried
 On the trumpet sonorous of fame,
 The word that liberty's cause is triumphant
 And the sound of America's name!
 In the place of their power now regnant,
 Freed the states of the Southland prevail;
 And the world's other freemen acclaim them:
 "Argentinos, our brethren, all hail!"
 CHO.—Freedom's laurel crown defending, etc.

3. *Pero sierras y muros se sienten
 Retumbar con horrible fragor,
 Todo el pais se conturba por gritos
 De venganza, de guerra y furor,
 En los fieros tiranos la envidia
 Escupio su pestifera hiel;
 Su estandarte sangriento levantan
 Provocando à la lid mas cruel.*
 CHO.—Sean eternos los laureles, etc.

4. *A vosotros se atreve Argentinos
 El orgullo del vil invasor,
 Vuestros campos ya pisa, cantando
 Tantas glorias hollar vencedor,
 Mas los bravos que unidos juraron
 Su feliz libertad sostener,
 A esos tigres sedientes de sangre
 Fuertes pechos sabran oponer.*
 CHO.—Sean eternos los laureles, etc.

5. *El valiente Argentino à las armas
 Corre ardiendo con brio y valor,
 El clarin de la guerra cual trueno
 En los campos del Sud resons.
 Buenos Aires se opone a la frente
 De los pueblos de la inclita Union,
 Y con brazos robustos desgarran
 Al Iberico altivo leon.*
 CHO.—Sean eternos los laureles, etc.

6. *La victoria al guerrero Argentino
 Con sus alas brillantes cubrio,
 Y azorado a su vista el tirano
 Con infamia a la fuga se dio.
 Sus banderas, sus armas se rinden
 Por trofeos a la libertad;
 Y sobre alas de gloria alza el pueblo
 Trono digno a su gran majestad.*
 CHO.—Sean eternos los laureles, etc.

7. *Desde un polo hasta el otro resuena
 De la fama el sonoro clarin,
 Y de América el nombre enseñando
 Les repite— mortales, oid:
 Ya su trono dignisimo abrieron
 Las Provincias unidas del Sud,
 Y los libres del mundo responden;
 Al gran pueblo Argentino, Salud!*
 CHO.—Sean eternos los laureles, etc.
